2. Appointment of Officers

The following officers were appointed:

Chairman – Sarah Hurhangee

Treasurer – Georgia Hogg

Secretary – Megan Patterson

Committee Members – Shelia Simpson

Olwen Young

Claire Matata

It was agreed all meetings would be open to all those who are interested in the group and would like to offer their help.

3. The History of St. Mary's and Its Link with the Village

Ken outlined the progress he and Olwen had made to date. He suggested March would be a realistic goal for the first of a series of talks. Ken and Olwen will continue to collate information and report back at the next meeting. It was agreed a limited display will be included at the Christmas Concert in December.

decorating the Church.

5. Church Library

Heather Patel is happy to progress improving the library at the back of the Church (she is too busy to be involved with the process of setting this up). This will include making the Church more welcoming and will encourage people to use the Church as a social gathering place. Sarah will look at purchasing a display cabinet and a larger bookcase. She will circulate the dimensions to allow group members to look out for a suitable bookcase. All suggestions to Sarah. Sarah will speak to the Church Safeguarding Officer regarding the regulations.
